

Business Trainer Dani Johnson Leads Spiritual Equipping Training in Chicago, Illinois, Nov. 11 & 12 at Business Seminar

Dani Johnson is the part of a growing trend of ministries that use business as their congregation and the boardroom and public events as their pulpit. Far from typical so-called Judeo-Christian venues, the First Steps to Success events focus on business development, personal growth, people skills, leadership and more.

(PRWeb) October 30, 2006 -- Dani Johnson's Internationally sought after training seminar, First Steps to Success, will be in Chicago, Illinois, November 11 and 12th to a crowd of over 800 attendees. During the past three consecutive months the event has been attended by completely sold out events in Dallas, TX, Gold Coast, Australia and now Chicago, Illinois.

Dani Johnson is the part of a growing trend of companies that use business as their congregation and the boardroom and public events as their pulpit. Far from typical so-called Judeo-Christian venues, the First Steps to Success events focus on business development, personal growth, people skills, leadership and more. While the focus of the weekend has never been the Saturday night Bonus Event that is open to the public, repeatedly during the past 2 years feedback forms from previous events have given indication that God is truly working thru the First Steps to Success events and the Bonus Saturday Event. Said Dani on a recent conference call, "We are amazed that repeatedly, for 24 months when we had out our feedback forms asking what was the most significant part of the seminar, we have comments on how much people loved the Saturday event."

Complete with live music concerts, training for the development of Personal and Spiritual Life, the jam packed crowds of 900+ people have been truly something the local church could take cue from. Records indicate that on average 40-70% of the attendees either give their life to Christ for the first time at the events or re-commit a previous dedication. Attendees have commented that Dani has a 'non-churchy' style to her teaching and preaching. She incorporates real-life issues with the reality of a non-perfect past that God has worked thru in her life and the lives of those she coaches.

Dani Johnson wasn't voted 'Most Likely to Succeed' in her graduating class. A long-time resident of California, she was raised in a home filled with drugs, horrific abuse, and other events that could have led to a life of destruction had she followed the path she was raised in. Homeless herself at the age of 19, Dani Johnson knows first hand how to overcome adversity and how to live a life of purpose and passion. She went from homeless to millionaire in less than 2 short years with a home business and now teaches others how to do the same.

She and her husband Hans are active not only in business but also in city ministries, funding of overseas orphanages, feeding the homeless and a multitude of charitable causes. Says Dani Johnson at a recent Saturday event, "God gave my husband and I an anointing to earn money, go into the enemy's camp and clean house. While I used to be plagued with greed with some of these abilities He has now directed us to a goal of giving away one million dollars per month, and our businesses have been so blessed that we're actually seeing that come to be a reality."

Teaching principles on wealth, business development, the reality of finances taught in the Bible and how it plays a big role in the purposes of God in the world today, Dani Johnson teaches cutting-edge strategies both in business and all areas of life. Focusing on a total ministry, Call to Freedom International, the head corporation of Dani and Hans Johnson meet the need of body, soul, mind and spirit.

"We are concerned beyond just the salvation issue, we are making disciples, sending people out in their giftings, activated and ready for action," Dani commented at a recent event sold out to 1000 in Los Angeles, California. "We've seen miracles, healings, marriages restored, teenagers set free, drug addicts repenting and more at our events, here in business, how wild is that!"

Some of the countries represented with the Dani Johnson trainings are Holland, Singapore, Japan, Australia, New Zealand, Netherlands, Germany, UK, Finland, Estonia, Phillipines, Guam, Bali, United States, Canada. In Los Angeles there were people from Africa as well who took an 18 hour flight to attend this internationally sought after training that would change their life.
