

Subject: Does Your Multi-Channel Marketing Have ADHD?

Hey Sandi -

Now before you get all defensive and think I'm making fun at someone who has a hard time with focus please note this: I was born with 5 brains and many times they do not think in sync! It seems to be a common problem (or blessing) with internet marketing geeks and gurus. So whatever the reason is I've spent a lot of money investing into myself to work on keeping my focus laser sharp.

Today's radio show I spent 15 power-packed minutes talking about how to make a Multi-Channel Marketing campaign that is so laser sharp, so strategic and so on target that it would be nearly impossible to fail.

Listen now to the radio show:

Subject: The Secret.... At Least The One I Believe In

Hey Sandi ,

I have a secret to share with you that not only increased the profits for my clients but also totally impacted my life.

In the middle of your busy day today.... this tip will totally revolutionize how you do business through Facebook and Twitter.. forever.

Seriously.... It's not one of those pie in the sky affiliate programs that doesn't help anyone... it's a personal.. one-on-one sharing time on how I was able to earn an extra 6-figure income, $ 165,000 on the side.... through Social Media last year.

Here's the 'secret'..... >>>> <http://www.arealchange.com/blog/secret-that-paid-me-165000-in-2009-through-facebook-twitter>

If you love Sushi... you won't want to miss this!

Have an amazing day, ok? :)

Subject: What Did You Just Say?

Dear Sandi ,

When you send a message out through your blog, on Twitter, on Facebook or anywhere for that matter online is your voice matching your message?

Or.... is your voice on your website schizophrenic? Ummm, multiple personalities does NOT work when it comes to your voice.

I recently did a 15 minute radio show where I deal with this topic.

Your VOICE is speaking for you whether you realize it or not. Even if someone else writes your copy, does your emails, answers the phones in your company- any contact at all with your prospective clients or customers is a voice.

If you start your business with a fun loving voice you can't switch into a Harvard Grad type technical voice later. No one will recognize you. Be sure you're talking the same in every contact you make with your clients.

Listen to the radio show now. It's only 15 minutes, but I warn you, some parts are so hysterical and out there please don't listen while at work or somewhere else that being quiet and orderly is important.- <http://tobtr.com/s/864143>

Do you hear what they hear? Listen to the show- It might shock you!

Speak to you soon,

Sandi Krakowski

Subject: Wallet Mailer Lady is going to have a baby!

Dear #firstname # << change to what Auto Pilot is

Ok ok, so some of you heard the rumor. It all started when this amazing copywriter I know began to do some work for me. She's what I'd call the "Midwife of Marketing" in all aspects of the word. She's ALSO the Online Queen if you ask me! Here's her resume:

Homeschool Mom for 18 years
Successful Internet Marketer for 14 years to the tune of multiple- 7 figures!
Copwriting and "Birther" of Business Ideas... 10+ years! Again 7-figures!
MLM expert for 2 years- made 7 - figures (duh!)
Baker and Creator of amazing goodies

Well, I thought I'd ask her to join me on a few projects and before I knew it we were brainstorming about a new "Internet Based" division of my current company Mega Bucks Marketing, Inc.

So ... it really is true what you heard!

I'm going to have a baby!

And.... my "Midwife of Marketing" Sandi Krakowski is going to birth my new Internet Marketing and Everything In Between division!

In case you didn't hear I was featured in Bill Glazer's best seller "Outrageous Advertising" recently and my phone has been ringing off the hook!

She's teaching me how to write emails for auto responder systems, talk through Twitter, use Facebook and create Internet tools and strategies as much as I can so my clients get more results, better service and well, a WHOLE NEW division with Mega Bucks Marketing, Inc.

We're 'birthing' real soon a live Radio show!
